OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 31 July 1969

25X1X 1. (Confidential - LLM) In satisfaction of a requirement imposed by Representative Durward Hall (R., Mo.), spoke with Mr. Jim Robinett, Legislative Assistant to Representative Hall, advising that we were sending a letter to the effect that [REDACTED]

25X1C [REDACTED] Robinett said that the official objectors on the Republican side would follow Congressman Hall's lead if he now withdrew his objections to the bill. I will advise Mr. Jim Cline, Counsel, Subcommittee on Immigration and Nationality, of this action in hopes that the bill can clear [REDACTED]

25X1A 2. (Confidential - LLM) In followup to [REDACTED] DIA, call of yesterday, [REDACTED] in General Brown's office at DIA, explained that the idea of sending Representative Clarence Long (D., Md.) a copy of a DDI Intelligence Memorandum concerning Indo-Pakistani relations was related to Long's question to Secretary Laird on the provisions for weapons for India or Pakistan in the current military assistance program. (Long in the past has sponsored restricting amendments on sophisticated weapons for underdeveloped countries.) DIA was thinking of sending the DDI report as an unsolicited enclosure of Secretary Laird's written response to Long's question in an effort to educate Long. I told [REDACTED] that we would like to be as cooperative as possible, but that this could cause us problems and that it was much better from our viewpoint if such matters were handled orally and in person with a Member. [REDACTED] appreciated our position and agreed that such matters are best handled in the fashion I had outlined and explained that since Long had not requested any briefing on the Indo-Pakistani relations they certainly were not in a position to do so.
